

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THE kindness of the Master and Fellows of Jesus College enables me to lay before the public for the first time a Catalogue of the Manuscripts belonging to the College. The only previous attempt is a list of seven volumes in Thomas James's Ecloga Oxonio-Cantabrigiensis (1600, p. 137): reprinted by Bernard in 1697: there is also a brief note in Halliwell's Manuscript Rarities of the University of Cambridge (1841, p. 173). Uffenbach (Merkwürdige Reisen, iii. 75) was unable to obtain access to the manuscripts.

The collection is mainly the gift of one donor, Thomas Man (B.A. 1674, M.A. 1678, M.D. 1687), Fellow of the College, and Vicar of Northallerton (see no. 8). More than fifty manuscripts were given by him, and a majority of these came from Durham Priory. Other northern monasteries, e.g. Hexham, Rievaulx, and Kirkstall, are also represented. Though not containing anything of surpassing importance, the collection is an interesting one enough. There is little good illuminated work, save in one Bible (no. 11). The Medical MSS. are fairly numerous. Probably the most attractive items in the Library are the early fragments in no. 5, the English passages in no. 13, the palimpsest Anglo-Saxon Homilies in no. 15, the Bury Formulae (no. 18), a French hymn (no. 21), the Psalter (no. 23), the Priscian (no. 28), the Rievaulx Catalogue (no. 34), the French Lapidaire (no. 44<sup>1</sup>), the Story of the Death of Judas (no. 46), the Wycliffite Gospels and New Testament (nos. 30, 47), the Obituary Roll in no. 55, Lydgate and

Cato (no. 56), a list of books in no. 57, and the Chronicles (no. 58). As a specimen of writing, the volume by the scribe Emylton (no. 70) is very noteworthy.

On the remarkable and beautiful room in which the manuscripts are preserved, the reader should consult Willis and Clark's Architectural History of the University of Cambridge (ii. 165, iii. 460).

I should like, in conclusion, to express my particular obligations to the Librarian of the College, the Rev. F. J. Foakes-Jackson, who has been most kind in affording me access to the manuscripts under his charge.

M. R. JAMES.

CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS.

1. Q. A. 1.

DECRETALES NOVAE GLOSSATAE.

Vellum, 15 $\frac{3}{4}$  × 10, ff. 208, text in double columns of 49 lines each, surrounded by gloss. Cent. xiii. Binding, original boards recovered: formerly had two clasps. Given by Mr Man, 21 Jan. 1685. At the beginning are two fly-leaves of a Canon Law MS. in double columns (xiii, xiv).

Provenance: Durham: on the top of the fourth fly-leaf has been an inscription of which only Decretales survives, and another partly cut off:

Iste liber accomodat ...
Omilium (? Dunlm) per dompnum Robertum de ...
Quem si aliquis alienauerit anathe(ma sit).

On f. 1. dunelm. E.

In the Catt. Vett. (of 1391)<sup>1</sup> p. 47, is this entry:

E. Decretales Nouae glo. 11. fo. textus "et unitas in natura."

These are the opening words of f. 2 in this MS.

Contents:

- .1. Incipit compilacio Gregorii ix. Prologue . . . . f. 1
c. 1. de summa trinitate & fide catholica liber primus.

The first words of the gloss are gone.

The Collection is in five books.

<sup>1</sup> Catalogi Veteres librorum Dunelm.: Surtees Society, 1838.

2. A tract in a different and later hand, in double columns of 63 lines . . . . . A 1
Inc. Legitur in Ezechiele venter tuus comedet et viscera tua implebuntur.

It is another compilation of Canon Law: references to the former are given at the end of each section.

On a fly-leaf at the beginning are three extracts in a xivth or xvth cent. hand, two from the Ottobonian Constitutions, and one from the Clementine.

2. Q. A. 2.

RUBRICA DE PROBATIONIBUS ETC. PER ANDREAM SICULUM.

Paper,  $13\frac{1}{2} \times 9$ , ff. 340, double columns of 43 to 63 lines. Cent. xv. Binding, plain wooden boards; covering, back and clasps gone.

Collation: a<sup>10</sup> b<sup>8</sup> c<sup>10</sup> d<sup>6</sup> (5 gone: 4, 6 blank) e<sup>10</sup>-g<sup>10</sup> h<sup>20</sup> || i<sup>10</sup> k<sup>8</sup> l<sup>10</sup>-s<sup>10</sup> t<sup>4</sup> v<sup>10</sup>-z<sup>10</sup> aa<sup>10</sup> (9, 10 blank, gone) bb<sup>10</sup> cc<sup>10</sup> dd<sup>4</sup> ee<sup>10</sup>-mm<sup>10</sup> nn<sup>8</sup> (8 blank, gone).

The writing is almost certainly Italian and is rough and ugly: the initials are not added.

Incipit. CONTINUATUR SIC. visum est de confessionibus per quas aduersarius releuatur ab onere probandi.

On l. 4 is a marginal note ending Versus fr. Alcok.

On the lower margin of q 10 b is the interesting stichometric note: In isto quinterno sunt pecie due colum septem linee. The columns here are of 63 lines, averaging 30 or 31 letters each. Quires y-mm are backed and guarded in the middle by strips of a MS. of cent. x. The earlier quires have guards from a xivth cent. MS. On the last cover is scribbled: Doctor alcok.

3. Q. A. 3.

BIBLIA SACRA.

Vellum,  $13 \times 9\frac{1}{2}$ , ff. 352 + 4, double columns of 54 lines each. Cent. xiii. Binding of cent. xviii. This MS. is no. 1 in T. James's Ecloga Cantabrigiensis, 1600, p. 137.

Collation: b<sup>12</sup>-p<sup>12</sup> (+ 2) q<sup>12</sup>-z<sup>12</sup> aa<sup>12</sup>-gg<sup>12</sup>.

The first quire is gone: the text begins in Gen. xxxvi. 24. patris sui. habuitque filium disan.

The order of the books is as follows:

Gen.—2 Chr.

Esdre I. = Ezra.

Uerba Neemie filii Esdre (running-title Esdre I.) = Nehemiah.

Esdre II. = 4 Esdr. i. ii. + 3 Esdr. + 4 Esdr. iii.-xvi. The books are joined without any note, thus:

Vade et annuncies populo meo qualia et quanta mirabilia domini dei uidisti. Et egit iosias pascha, etc.<sup>1</sup>—et coadunati sunt omnes in ierusalem iocundari secundum dispositionem domini dei israel. Anno . xxx° . ruine ciuitatis ierusalem.

Tobit—Psalms.

The Psalter shows more traces of wear than the rest of the book: at the end of it is a stichometric note: Expliciunt psalmi c. l. qui continent uersus numero quinque milia.

Isaiah—Malachi.

1, 2 Maccabees.

Prov.—Ecclus.

Matt.—Apoc.

The Eusebian Canons in a plain frame of yellow occupy two pages after the Apocalypse.

On the fly-leaves are two xvth century lists of the Books of the Bible.

4. Q. A. 4.

SUMMA BARTHOLOMAEI DE PISIS DE CASIBUS IURIS.

Vellum, 13 × 9, ff. 248, double columns of 36 to 47 lines. Cent. xv. Binding modern, leather over boards: clasps gone. This is no. 4 in James's list of MSS. at Jesus College, in his Ecloga Cantabrigiensis, 1600, p. 137.

Collation: a<sup>8</sup> (1, 2 cancelled) b<sup>8</sup>-r<sup>8</sup> s<sup>8</sup> t<sup>8</sup>-x<sup>8</sup> || i<sup>8</sup> ii<sup>8</sup> || y<sup>8</sup> z<sup>8</sup> || &<sup>8</sup> 9<sup>8</sup> 1<sup>8</sup> (wants 1) 2<sup>8</sup> (wants 1) 3<sup>8</sup> 4<sup>8</sup> (wants 1) 5<sup>8</sup> (wants 8, blank).

The signatures s 5, 6 are marked s ante finale, s finale. After x occur two quires unsigned without interruption of text.

The writing is fairly good, probably English: the initials plain red and blue for the most part.

The work is an Encyclopaedia of Canon Law with a Prologue beginning Quoniam ut ait Gregorius super Ezechielem. It runs from abbas to zelus.

On the last cover is :

Caucio domini thome low et habet supplementum viz.
Auecennam super metaphysicam cum aliis.

5. Q. A. 5.

PETRI COMESTORIS HISTORIA SCHOLASTICA.

Vellum,  $13 \times 9\frac{1}{2}$ , ff. 152, double columns of 50 lines. Cent. xiii, xiv. Binding of cent. xviii. Probably identical with no. 5 in James's list, Ecloga Cant. p. 137. Historia Egesippi, uti uidetur.

Collation : i<sup>8</sup>-xix<sup>8</sup>.

There are two tattered fly-leaves from an early Missal (cent. x, xi) with 29 lines on a page, in a fine hand.

1 a has part of the Gospel for the Decollation of S. John Baptist (29 Aug.) and Graduals, etc. (neumes are given over the opening words).

1 b. Lectio Libri Sapientiae (Justorum animae).

2 a. Preface for S. Ypolitus (12 Aug.). Communion, Dico autem uobis. Collect for S. Eusebius, Conf. (14 Aug.). Epistle, Testificor. Gradual, Os iusti. 2 b. Assumptio S. Marie, two Collects and Lessons from Wisdom, In omnibus requiem querui.

The text is well written, with red and blue initials of pen-work. It ends in the chapter de dyonisio areopagita. uolui uos reuocare ab impietate.

It has suffered from damp in the upper margins.

6. Q. A. 6.

Closely resembles Q. A. 1. Fly-leaves (2) from a xiiith cent. MS. of Law in double columns.

Collation: i<sup>s</sup> ii<sup>s</sup> || a<sup>12</sup>-h<sup>12</sup> i<sup>10</sup> k<sup>12</sup> l<sup>12</sup> m<sup>12+1</sup> n<sup>12</sup>-p<sup>12</sup> q<sup>s</sup> r<sup>s</sup> s<sup>s+1</sup> t<sup>12</sup> v<sup>s</sup> x<sup>10</sup> y<sup>12</sup> z<sup>12</sup> (1 cancelled).

The second leaf of the text (f. 16) begins quemadmodum in canonica. I cannot find the volume in the old Catalogues.

On the lower margin of f. 15 a, in a late xvth cent. hand, is:

On 14 b is another table of chapters.

It is a dictionary of Canon Law running from Ab (Abbas) to Zelus. The first article in B is Babilon and in C, Calcar. The writing is rough and the whole volume ugly. There is a vellum fly-leaf at the beginning.

8. Q. A. 8.

ISIDORI ETYMOLOGIARUM LIBRI XX.

Vellum,  $11\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ , ff. 212, 40 lines to a page. Cent. xv. Written in England: modern binding. Given by Mr Man. Has the name Thomas Sandford, 1535: and Thomas Man, Vicarius de North Allerton.

The first words of f. 2 are: quam contempsisti postulantem.

The provenance is not clear: I do not find the volume in the Durham Catalogue.

The ornaments and initials at the beginnings of the books are exceedingly good and characteristic English work: blue, pink, green, orange, and gold are prominent colours.

9. Q. A. 9.

BIBLIA SACRA.

Vellum,  $11\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ , ff. 241, double columns of 42 lines each. Cent. xv. Ex dono Caleb Pott (or Pett) hujus Coll. Alumni A<sup>o</sup> N<sup>o</sup> C<sup>i</sup> CLXXVIII (1678).

Collation: thirty quires of eights: of the 31st the first leaf only is left.

Contents :

Ending imperfectly with Saducei.

The Epistle to the Laodiceans follows Colossians on f. 193 b.

There are borders and initials of rough English work at the beginnings of the books: only in a few cases are they illustrative. The book of Jonah has a ship and a fish in the initial and that of the Acts a dove.

10. Q. A. 10.

PS. CHRYSOSTOMI OPUS IMPERFECTUM IN MATTHAEUM.

Binding: original boards rebacked and recovered; formerly fastened with two clasps: chain-mark at bottom inner corner of obverse board. At each end are four leaves of a service-book in double columns (of cent. xv) containing the office for Advent, with music on a four-line stave.

On the lower margin of one of the leaves at the end is :

Iste liber constat M. Willelmo Carlyll.

On fol. p 4 b at the end of homily 51 is: quod saxylby.

Collation: a<sup>10</sup>—m<sup>10</sup> n<sup>8</sup> o<sup>8</sup> p<sup>8</sup> q<sup>8</sup> (wants 6, 7) r<sup>10</sup> (9, 10 cancelled).

On q 5 b is the note hic deficit, in Hom. 55: the page ends with alterum non grauat, the next begins sed inde misericordiam christi.

The writing is ugly and the initials of the plainest.

It is most probably this volume that appears in James's Ecloga Cantabrigiensis, p. 137, as no. 2, Chrysostomus in opere imperfecto.

11. Q. A. 11.

BIBLIA SACRA.

27. Cant. The Virgin crowned, kissing the Child: seated.
28. Wisd. Solomon throned, hands a sword to a man on L.
29. Ecclus. Solomon throned, points upward to a cloud: four men kneel on L.
30. Isaiah. Isaiah nude, stands: his hands and feet are bound to the top and bottom of the initial: two men saw him from below with a frame-saw.
31. Jer. Jeremiah kneels on R. stoned by two men: one has a winged head-dress. Above the prophet's head is the Divine Hand.

32. Lam. Jeremiah on L. sits with hand to head: a falling city on R.
 33. Baruch. A nimbed tonsured man writing.
 34. Ezek. Above, the Evangelistic symbols: a wheel in the centre: below, Ezekiel sleeping, head to L.

 36. Dan. On L. Habakkuk, nimbed, carrying loaves in his robe and a bucket in his hand, is borne by an angel holding his hair: on R. Daniel standing in a tower-like building with four lions' heads on R. greets him.
 37. Hosea. Gomer and another woman on L. addressed by Hosea nimbed seated on R.
 38. Joel. Standing addresses four men seated on R. in peaked hats.

 40. Jonah. Similar to no. 23.
 41. Micah. Nimbed, seated and holding two branches.

 43. Habakkuk. Nimbed, sits and points to book: an angel speaks to him from above.
 44. Zachariah. Above, a bust of the prophet: below, a king: below, a figure on a red horse, a white horse beyond him.
 45. Malachi. Nimbed, slaughters a beast lying on an altar: the blood caught in a green bowl on a stem.
 46. 1 Macc. Christ, nimbed, with cross-staff, in centre, face R. Behind him on L. a prostrate man and a mailed man with spear: on R. five seated people.
 47. 2 Macc. On L. a stooping man holding a box emerges from a gate. Two mailed men with shields and raised swords are about to smite him.
 48. Luke. Gold ground. Luke tonsured and beardless turns to R. and looks at his pen: he is writing on a scroll at a table across the picture. Below, a winged ox.

The drawing of these pictures is particularly fine: nos. 19, 41, 46 are excellent examples.

2. f. 4 begins with Ascendam. This is the first word of a sermon on S. Andrew. Ascendam in palmam et apprehendam fructum eius. The sermons are de sanctis from S. Andrew to S. Katherine, and are numbered from 62 to 126. There are two for S. Francis (one very long) and one for S. Clara.

BEDA SUPER GENESIM ET EXODUM.

Vellum, 11½ × 8, ff. 154, 29 lines to a page. Cent. xii.

Given by Mr Man. Binding, original boards, covered with white skin, and fastened by strap and pin : the strap has its original perforated metal end, with rudely incised pattern.

Collation: i<sup>10</sup>-vi<sup>10</sup> vii<sup>8</sup> viii<sup>10</sup>-xi<sup>10</sup> xii<sup>6</sup> (3-6 cancelled) || i<sup>10</sup> (1 cancelled) ii<sup>12</sup> iii<sup>12</sup> iv<sup>1</sup> (1 left).

The leaves attached to the binding at beginning and end are partially erased leaves of another copy of Bede on Genesis, having 34 lines to a page, of about the same date as the volume.

Provenance: Durham. On f. 1a is:

A. Liber sancti Cuthberti de Dunelm.

The second leaf begins:

Potest autem non improbabiliſſe,

and on the top of the page is:

Beda super genesim usque cap. 21 tantum.

I cannot find this volume in the Catalogi Veteres.

The writing is beautiful: the commentary on Exodus is in another hand of the same date. There is a very fine initial I on f. 1b, of green, red, and yellow, on blue, in the form of a ladder of conventional foliage.

On 1a is: John Richardson's book pretium ijs vjd.

Contents:

1. Beda super Genesim	. . . . .	f. 1
2. Beda super Exodum	. . . . .	121

Ends on Exod. xxvi. (Quos operies laminis aureis) with the words: et odio habens iniquitatem: pios nouerit.

PETRI LOMBARDI SENTENTIARUM LIBRI IV.

Vellum, 11 x 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ , ff. 132, mostly in double columns of 40 lines each. Cent. xi, xiv. Given by Mr Man, Jan. 21, 1685. Binding original: white skin over boards: strap and pin fastening.

Collation: i<sup>6</sup> ii<sup>4</sup> || a<sup>8</sup> b<sup>8</sup> c<sup>12</sup> || d<sup>8</sup> e<sup>8</sup> f<sup>8</sup> || g<sup>8</sup> h<sup>8</sup> i<sup>8</sup> || k<sup>8</sup> l<sup>8</sup> m<sup>8</sup> n<sup>12</sup> (12 cancelled) || iii<sup>12</sup> (7, 11, 12, 14, 15 cancelled), 132 leaves.

Provenance: Durham? The press-mark on f. 11 is Textus iiij<sup>or</sup> librorum sententiarum E. The 2nd leaf of the text begins pluralitatis non.

It may be the copy entered thus in Catt. Vett. (pp. 22 and 98):

P. Textus Sententiarum cum Libro Penitentiae et aliis ii. fo.,
"pluralitatis."

Contents:

I. Quires i, ii, and iii (at end) are palimpsest: the older writing contains fragments of Homilies in Anglo-Saxon upon the Gospels, of cent. xi, xii, 27 lines to the page. f. 1 remains intact.

Inc. Spa spa he him on Life bellet þaðahe clýpode of eorþan to his ælmsihtigan fæder fæder min ic wille þæt þa pumon midme þeþinne fortgeaf of ðisum middan earde.

Ends on l. 1 of verso.

halgan gaste onanre godcundnýsse an ælmihtigod abutan ende. Amen.

LAESPELL (rubr.).

Laepde menn behopiað þæt him larpas secgan þagodspellican lare þe hi on bocum leornodon. John xiv. 23 is quoted.

f. 2 is palimpsest: the upper writing in double columns of 34 lines each, of cent. xiv, xv, very rude. At the top, Assit principio S. Maria meo.

Incipit paruulus tractatus de vii petitionibus...et vii vitiis capitalibus. Pater noster. Cum hec oratio a sapientissimo.

The lower writing is lost, save perhaps a line or two at the bottom, where galls have been applied.

On f. 3 b about five lines might be read.

f. 4 a is more than half free from later writing, but erased.

f. 4 b is erased, but mostly decipherable.

ff. 5 a-6 b erased, but almost all decipherable: the last seven lines on f. 6 b untouched: they refer to the text, He that exalteth himself shall be abased.

f. 7. A table to the Sentences. Cent. xiii, xiv. Only the faintest traces of the earlier writing appear. So with

f. 8, of which the verso is blank. f. 9 a is blank. 9 b is half covered with notes: the upper half of f. 10 is cut away. Possibly f. 10 might be deciphered.

In quire iii

f. 1 a is covered with miscellaneous notes.

ff. 1 b-3 b contain verses (cent. xiv), about 140 in number.

Peniteas cito peccator cum sit miserator
Iudex. et sunt hec quinque tenenda tibi.

End:

Plauso tartarei confusio multa ministri
Et fuga cohortum felix adopcio celi.

On all these leaves the old writing is hopelessly defaced.

ff. 4-9 a a tract, cent. xiv, xv, in double columns:

Cum summa teologice discipline diuiditur in duas partes.

ff. 4-7 are palimpsest: on 7 b, 8, 9 I can see nothing: 9 b is blank.

ff. 10, 11 are carefully scraped, but have no later writing.

On the last cover are traces of a page of the Anglo-Saxon.

II. Quires a-n contain the four books of the Sentences. They are well written, and rubricated, and have marginal notes in various hands.

16. Q. A. 16.

AUGUSTINI QUAEDAM.

Vellum,  $11\frac{3}{4} \times 7$ , ff. 130, double columns of 32 lines each. Cent. xii. Bound in two consecutive sheets of a Psalter (xiiith cent.) in double columns of 27 lines each, contains parts of the Psalms Judica Domine xxxiv.—Dixi custodiam xxxviii. and Deus auribus xliii.—Deus deorum xlix. Given by Mr Man: it has the name of Thomas Iveson 1567. In the binding is a bit of a xvth century table.

Collation: a<sup>s</sup>—q<sup>s</sup> r<sup>s</sup> (3, 4 cancelled).

On the last leaf of 1 (f. 88 b) is the note ii. idus decembres: on n<sup>o</sup> (104) xvi. kal. Aug. and another date, cut off, on the next page.

Provenance: perhaps Hexham or Rievaulx: on the fly-leaf is a xith cent. table of the contents, and a xvth cent. press-mark.

Augustinus de baptismo et de natura et gracia et alia litera B.

The first words of f. 2 are consortium non accessissent.

The writing and initials (in blue, green and red) are both very good.

SUMMA DE VITIIS.

Vellum, 11 × 7½, ff. 142, double columns of 40 lines each. Cent. xiv, xv. In an ugly hand. Given by Mr Man.

Binding: pasteboard, covered externally with a sheet of a large Psalter of cent. xiii, in double columns of 27 lines each. The text begins in Ps. lxxvii. (Exsurgat deus) and ends in Ps. lxx. The Psalm Saluum me fac has a rather bold initial. The insides of the covers are lined with other pieces as it seems of the same book, but at each end of the volume a sheet of a xvth cent. index to a Canon Law book is pasted over them.

Collation: a<sup>13</sup>–l<sup>13</sup> m<sup>10</sup>.

Provenance: ? Durham: fol. 2 begins Indifferenter tamen. I do not find it in Catt. Vett.

Contents:

| 2. Tractatus de virtutibus . . . . . | 87 b |

No. 1 begins: Primo videndum est quid sit peccatum.

It ends on 87 a. There are a good many marginal notes, from which, rather than from the text itself (which has a late look), I conclude the date to be the xivth century. At the end is: Expl. summa de vitiis.

No. 2. f. 87 b. Postquam dictum est de morbis ipsius anime.

Ends f. 142 a: pauci in virginitate. Expl. de uirtutibus.

PSALTERIUM.

Vellum,  $10\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ , ff. 96, 25 lines to a page. Cent. xiii.

No donor's name. Binding: boards covered with parchment: modern label.

Collation: i<sup>a</sup> (2 cancelled) a<sup>10</sup>—c<sup>10</sup> d<sup>s</sup> e<sup>10</sup>—g<sup>10</sup> h<sup>10</sup> (+ 9* omnes sancte virgines) i<sup>10</sup> k<sup>4</sup>.

Psalterium cum Canticis	. . . . .	2
Litany	. . . . .	77 b
Sequences	. . . . .	86
Virgo gaude	. . . . .	95

On f. 1 a is a hymn (cent. xiii) in French, in 7 stanzas of 6 lines each:

Ave ihu ki por nous pecheurs del cel descendistis
 E de la uirgine marie char e sanc preistes
 E nostre seinte deite de deuz sun cors cuueristes
 Ke deus esteis e creatur uerai hume deuenistes
 Sauue la uirginite de la seinte pucele nasquistes
 E par la porte close del bonure uentre issistes.

Each stanza begins with Ave ihu. A rubric follows:

Ki ces saluz suuent dirat: ia ben del cel ne lui faudrat.
 De ses pechez pardun auerat: e a pres sa fin a deu irat.
 Ke nostre sire le otreat a seint franchiff ke les rimat.

On the same page is a Memoria of S. Sebastian (xv cent.).

Also in red: Iste liber Pertinet Thome Bryston (xvi) and also the name Thomas Thomylthorp (xvii).

On f. 1 b is a long hymn in two columns; 16 stanzas of 12 lines each (xiiiith cent.).

Iesu princeps maiestatis	}	angelorum domine,
Fons perhennis pietatis
Qui de celis descendisti	}	ex maria uirgine.

Ad te pie mi saluator	}	sub peccati pondere,

Pande sinum pietatis	}	digneris suscipere.
Vt trementem pro peccatis

The Psalter.

The words Beatus uir—impiorum are in blue and red capitals, ornamented. The Collects are appended to each Psalm. The following Psalms have large initials: none are figured.

Dominus illuminatio.	Exultate.
Dixi custodiam.	Cantate (a good design).
Quid gloriaris.	Domine exaudi (Ps. ci. lat. ).
Dixit insipiens.	Dixit dominus.
Saluum me fac.

Ps. cli. Puillus eram, with the Collect Deus exaudibilis, follows Ps. cl.

The Litany has been very oddly treated. The original names of the Saints invoked after S<sup>c</sup>e Clemens have been rewritten in the xvth century, and extended to the full Sarum form for the days of the week. This has necessitated the insertion of an extra leaf, f. 9* of quire h: the verso of f. 78 being entirely palimpsest. The original list of Saints ended at f. 78 a, col. 2, 3 lines from the bottom: the Saints now occupy the whole of f. 78 and col. 1 of f. 79. It is not possible at present to determine the original names.

The Sequences on f. 81 sqq. have musical notes on a 4-line stave for the first verse of each. There are two for S. Augustine, Magne pater Augustine and Celi cines applaudite, which indicate that the book was for use in an Augustinian house.

On f. 95 b is the poem:

Virgo gaude digna laude templum sancti spiritus.
Que nature uicto iure concepisti celitus.

In 68 ll.

Then follow 7 lines:

Gaude uirgo gloriosa uerbum uerbo concepisti
Gaude tellus fructuosa uite fructum protulisti.

The fly-leaf at the end is from a Missal of cent. xiii, in double columns of 30 lines each, containing Proper Prefaces for Easter, etc.

22. Q. B. 5.

GRADUALE ECCLESIAE DUNELMENSIS CUM NOTIS.

Vellum, 11½ × 6¾, ff. 139 + 3, 8 lines of music to a page. Cent. xiv, xv.

Binding: wooden boards, with later leather back, clasp gone. Given by Mr Man.

Collation: i<sup>2</sup> (1 cancelled) a<sup>12</sup>—l<sup>12</sup> m<sup>8</sup> (+ 6*): 2 fly-leaves at end.

Graduals and Tracts for the year.

On the fly-leaf at the beginning, in a later hand, are two Tracts or Graduals:

*Desiderium anime eius tribuisti
Qui Lazarum. Requiem eternam.*

At the top of a page (in the Palm Sunday service) in a xvith century hand is:

Will still to wiffe woulde leade me
But wit would ytt a red me
Off wyving to be were
Inne Will to Will in wivinge
Or elles farewell all thryving,
Awoue ytt well I dere.

I. C.

On the first page of the Proprium de Sanctis is added at the top in a slightly later hand: De scō benedicto de Wermuth R Os iusti Alleluia Justum deduxit. At the bottom in another xivth cent. hand: Tractus Desiderium non est in hoc libro (see fly-leaf).

S. Blasius is inserted in the margin before S. Agatha. We also find: SS. Vedastus and Amandus, Scholastica (Cedda B. C. and Oswin inserted) Cuthbert, Aelphege, (in the lower margin here is a late notary's device, the name R. Yond at the bottom, the initials I. A. C. round the top) Wilfrid, John of Beverley, Dunstan, (William of York inserted) Botulf, Alban, Etheldrida (sic), Karileph, Swithun, Boysil, Trans. of S. Thomas erased, Trans. of S. Swithun, Wandregesil, (S. Anne inserted, Transfiguration inserted) Osuuald, (Oswyn inserted), Magnus, Ebba, Aydan, Trans. of S. Cuthbert, (Thomas of Hereford inserted), Paulus (? Paulinus), Wilfrid, Romanus, Etheldrida, (Frydeswyda inserted, S. Edmund of Canterbury inserted), Edmund the King.

Four leaves from the end begins the Tonarium.

The book is evidently from Durham: but the Catt. Vett. do not admit of identifying it. The two fly-leaves at the end are also from service-books with music: the second has a hymn to S. Oswald.

26. Q. B. 9.

EGIDIUS ROMANUS DE REGIMINE PRINCIPUM.

Vellum,  $9\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ , ff. 262, in double columns of 32 lines each. Cent. xv.

Written in England, in a fine upright hand. Bound in old stamped leather over boards: the clasps are gone. There is an old press-mark: Classis 2dae dextrae lib: 51. The number 51 is also stamped on the edge of the leaves.

On the fly-leaf is :

17<sup>o</sup> Decembris 1633.

Franc: Hughes vnus ex Armigeris Bedellis amicissimus vir et benefactor dono dedit amoris ergo.

Collation: a<sup>10</sup> (1 blank, 9 cancelled) b<sup>a</sup>-ii<sup>a</sup> kk<sup>a</sup> (3 cancelled, 6 blank).

F. 1 a has a border of French-Flemish work, the style of which is later than that of the rest of the ornamental work. It is divided into triangles with grounds of fluid gold, blue and red, with flowers and flourishes. There is also a miniature, occupying three-fourths of the text-space, of the Descent of the Holy Ghost: the Virgin and 17 others are kneeling in a room: above are the Father and Son throned, probably sending down the Dove. This part of the painting has been partly erased. The style of it is very bad. In the lower margin are these arms. Quarterly azure and gules, four lions or rampant gardant. On a chief argent wavy, 3 besants sable. Throughout the book, at the L. of each column, is a kind of ornament topped with a fleur-de-lys alternately gold and blue, and with demi fleurs-de-lys, alternately gold and blue, springing out of it all the way up.

There are a certain number of marginal notes.

28. Q. B. 11.

PRISCIANUS.

Vellum, 10½ × 6½, ff. 129, 41 lines to a page. Cent. xi.

Given by Mr Man.

Collation: a<sup>s</sup> (1 and 8 loose)—c<sup>s</sup> d<sup>10</sup> e<sup>s</sup>—g<sup>s</sup> h<sup>s</sup> (8 cancelled) i<sup>s</sup>—l<sup>s</sup> m<sup>s</sup> (7, 8 gone, replaced by 2 leaves of cent. xiii, xiv) n<sup>s</sup> (1 gone, replaced by 1 leaf of cent. xiii, xiv) o<sup>s</sup> p<sup>s</sup> q<sup>s</sup>: quires numbered later i—xvi on lower margin of last page of each.

The book comes from Durham. On f. 1 b is the letter N, and on what should be f. 2 a (now 3 a) is Priscianus in maiori et de accentibus de communi libraria monachorum dunelm.

In the Catalogue of the "Spendemete" (1391, Catal. Vett. p. 49) is the entry:

N. Liber Prisciani in magno. ii fo., "bile est aliquid," which answers to this copy.

Possibly it may be one of two Priscians left by Bp Hugo Pudsey in 1195 (l. c. 118).

The contents are:

- |    |   |        |
|----|---|--------|
| 1. | The Greek alphabet and numerals . . . . .       | f. 1 a |
|    | Some nearly illegible matter in Latin . . . . . | 1 a    |
| 2. | Prisciani de Grammatica Libri xvi . . . . .     | 1 b    |
| 3. | Priscianus de Accentibus . . . . .              | 129    |

Ending imperfectly :

si penultimam correptam habent ante penultimam.

The ornaments of the book, such as they are, are interesting. The initial to the whole work (f. 1 b) is of white and blue on a red ground, and contains a picture in outline of Priscian in a pointed cap and embroidered dress, writing at a desk, on a scroll inscribed :

Sum romanorum corrector grammaticorum.

The initial to book viii is better drawn and better preserved : the colours used are the same. In it a boy in tunic and blue shoes is climbing among the interlacements. The tract de accentibus has a very Celtic initial, with plaited work.

It may be of interest to add some notice of the Greek alphabet and numerals which appear on f. 1 a. They are arranged in this form :

i una (for mia) alpha Α	ii diw beta Β	iii tris gamma Γ	iiii tessarar delta Δ	v pente e br̄uis Ε	vi hexa episima Σ	vii hepta zeta Ζ	viii ogda eta Η
ix ennea teta Θ	x ...(? deca) iota Ι	xv pimoicosi cappa Κ	xxx trienta lapda Λ	xl saranta mi )(	l pentinta ni )-	lx hexinta xi Ξ	lxx hecdointa o br̄uis Ο

dc exacos chi Χ	dcc heptacos psi Ψ	dccc octacos octomega Ω	dcxxx kcennecos ennaches Λ

The almost illegible lower half of the page is, partly at least, in French (cent. xiii, early). In the first line (about the middle) I can read :

estre eledh chiet. Seint acharie la p̄nt .....en sun la. os ais nerf.

The last part is in Latin : the last line but one begins, et pedes crucifixi.

The whole, French and Latin, fills 20 lines.

29. Q. B. 12.

EXTRACTS FROM THE CONSTITUTIONS OF CLEMENT V.

Vellum,  $9\frac{3}{4} \times 6$ , ff. 64, 25 lines to a page. Cent. xv (early).

Binding: modern leather over old boards: formerly fastened with strap and pin. Given by Mr Man.

Fly-leaf from a MS. of xiiith cent. in double columns (Canon Law).

Collation: a<sup>8</sup>-c<sup>8</sup> d<sup>6</sup> e<sup>8</sup>-g<sup>8</sup> h<sup>10</sup>.

Provenance. Durham. At the top of f. 1 are the remains of two inscriptions, the greater part of which has been torn off: of the first only the word liber remains. Of the second

h. Textus septimi . . . . . h. .

It was no doubt written at Durham College, Oxford (see the Colophon), and sent to Durham at a later period: the second of the two inscriptions is certainly a Durham one. The book does not occur in the Catt. Vett.

Colophon, in red:

Nomen scriptoris est thomas plenus amoris
Iste liber constat Petro de Abyngdun.
Stephano

The line about the writer's name (often supposed to stand for Fullalove) is common in Oxford MSS. e.g. Univ. cod. cxlii.

ends: Clemens quintus in generali constitucione vienn.

2. De rescript. ꝛ.

A good many leaves are palimpsest: the earlier writing is in double columns, very small, of cent. xiii or xiv.

(cent. xv: 10 gone: blank).

The hand is good: it appears to change in quire g and to become larger. The original copy seems to have been made from an imperfect archetype: f. 1 a is blank: the text begins imperfectly: f. 93 b was originally blank. This page and ff. 94-103 (as well as ff. 3, 4) are written in a late xvth cent. hand.

The initials of the books are plain green or red.

There are marginal and interlinear glosses in at least four hands: 1, contemporary; 2, of cent. xiii, xiv; 3, of cent. xv, by the scribe who supplied the latter leaves; 4, of cent. xv, xvi, resembling an Italian hand.

The text begins at Aen. i. 230.

Eternis regis imperiis et fulmine terres.

The two supply leaves contain the lines

i. 277. Moenia Romanosque suo de nomine dicet to

466. Namque uidebat uti bellantes Pergama circum.

The xvth century hand supplies all after

xii. 108. Aeneas acuit hastam et se suscitāt ira.

Books vii-xii have the arguments in hexameters.

The shape of the book indicates that it was intended, not for the shelf, but for the wallet. The number 14 is branded on the edges.

34. Q. B. 17.

TRACTATUS MISCELLANEI.

Vellum, 8½ × 6, ff. 137, varying numbers of lines to a page. Cent. xii, xiii.

Given by Mr Man.

Binding: modern leather over old boards: has had either clasp or strap and pin.

Provenance. Rievaulx: on f. 7 b is Liber scē Marie Rieuall: on 47 b Lib. S. M. Rieuallis: and again on f. 109 a.

Collation: a<sup>s</sup> || b<sup>s</sup> || c<sup>s</sup> d<sup>s</sup> (see post) e<sup>s</sup> f<sup>s</sup> (wants 8) || g<sup>s</sup> h<sup>s</sup> i<sup>s</sup> (wants 8) || k<sup>s</sup> l<sup>s</sup> m<sup>10</sup> (wants 10) n<sup>s</sup> o<sup>s</sup> || p<sup>s</sup> (+ 8* -da sunt) || q<sup>s</sup> || r<sup>s</sup> (wants 2) s<sup>s</sup> t<sup>s</sup> (wants 8) || u<sup>s</sup> (wants 6).

I append a copy of the Catalogue which occupies ff. 1-6, though it has been already printed in Wright and Halliwell's Reliquiae Antiquae, II. pp. 180-189, and also in Edward Edward's Memoirs of Libraries, I. p. 333-341.

It is perhaps worth remarking that the comparatively small amount of secular literature which the list contains was probably a common feature in Cistercian Libraries, at least in the early days of the order.

Contents:

1. Prosodia Sacerdotum . . . . . 1

This is a table of all the words in the lessons, etc., for the whole year, in which mistakes in prosody were likely to be made. The quantity of the penultimate syllable is indicated by an l for longa, b=brevis, s=accent subleuatus on the last syllable, d for a depressura of the accent on the last. There is a fair border on f. 1 a of English work, and other partial borders occur, but the ornament is not remarkable. In the part relating to the Proprium Sanctorum we have the usual Sarum English Saints, with special emphasis on S. Frideswide: her feast, octave, translation, Dominica infra Octauam, and Per Octauam: following this, and immediately preceding the Commune Sanctorum, is Inuencio fratrum.

f. 134 b

Mirabiliter oriri cepit sancta arbor de tribus uirgulis composita. Prima erat Cypressina alia Cedrina et Pini speciem habuit tertia. Cypressus patrem Cedrus filium Pinus spiritum sanctum significat de quibus facta est christi (crux) adoranda. Et mirabilis in terra stetit usque ad tempus Dauid regis nichil crescens nec uiriditatem nec foliorum teneritudinem perdens set per omnia sic permansit sicut primo Moisi apparuit donec sanctus Dauid meruit illam de loco transferre et in orto suo reponere. Ibi .u. erat illa crescens ut xxx<sup>ta</sup> annis efficeretur arbor grandis; hec inter omnes arbor uua nobilis. Ex illis tribus uirgulis creuit quas dei amicus Moyses a sompno excitatus circa se reperit exortas per tres noctes continuas quas dei amicus deo dilectus Dauid ad Ierusalem detulit: ibi in uiridario suo collocatus per annos xxx<sup>ta</sup> coluit. et unoquoque anno in illarum summitate unum argenteum circulum innexuit. Et reliquos inferius innexos dilatauit ut arbor dilataretur in grossum et extenderetur in longum. ille uirgule continuatam habentes uiriditatem in unam similem concreuerunt arborem. Que arbor mire suauitatis erat in estate et yeme immarcescibiles frons[135]dium flores protulit. Tempore peracto laudabilis arbor cedris libani omnibus sublimior iussu regis Salamonis succisa est ad edificacionem templi et cum nullo modo coaptari poterit et coequari, in crucifixionem tantummodo corporis Christi digna fuit coaptari in qua uita mundi pependit, in qua Christus triumphauit. Et xxx<sup>ta</sup> aureos circulos in templo suspensos uesani acceperunt Iudei et dederunt infelici Iude pro tradicionem domini nostri ut esset ueraciter impletum quod dicitur per prophetam: Apprehenderunt mercedem xxx<sup>ta</sup> argenteis quos appreciatus (sum) ab eis. Et in passione domini secundum mathei compositionem de eodem infelici Iuda scriptum est quod adiret principes sacerdotum et inquireret ab eis precium nostri saluatoris ita inquiens. Quid uultis mihi dare et ego eum uobis tradam. At illi constituerunt ei xxx<sup>ta</sup> argenteos, illos uidelicet predictos circulos qui templo pendebant, quos communiter possidebant et quos infelix Iudas accepit pro tradicionem domini nostri. Et uendito Iesu Christo rediit ad domum suam et retulit matri sue per ordinem quomodo tradidit dominum Audiens autem eius mater quod ab eo traditus esset in furem conversam est et lacrimata est dicens. Heu me miseram qui te genui celeratum filium. Quid tibi et iusto illi? Quare infelix iustum et sanctum tradere uoluisti. Nunc ergo absque dubitatione omnes maledicciones implebuntur in te <que> [135 b] per prophetam ita sunt scripte fiant filii eius orphani et uxor eius uidua et cetera que secuntur in illo psalmo. Non enim ut estimas filium hominis tradidisti sed unigenitum dei filium et ecce a te sanguis eius exquisitus et tu reus mortis eius extiteris. vere de illo propheta dicit Filius hominis uadit sicut scriptum est de eo: ue illi per quem traditus fuerit. Nunc ergo fili doloris mei quid acturus quid dicturus eris dum ueritatis prophetam a mortuis resurrexisse cognoueris? Ad uocem igitur lacrimose matris in iracundiam prouocatus Iudas respexit ad focum uiditque super eum ollam feruentem stantem et in ea semicoctum gallum iacentem, clamauitque ad matrem suam. Quomodo in tantum deuenisti errorem ut illum amentem dicas fuisse prophetam atque a mortuis aliquem resurrecturum? Ego autem per maximum affirmo iuramentum quod de ista poterit olla facilius hic depilatus exire gallus quam resurgere a mortuis ille crucifixus. Hec dum infelix ganniret et ad modum uulpis clamaret Iudas, semicoctus gallus effectus est rediuuius et protinus de feruenti olla exiliens apparuit pulcherimus pennisque et plumis restitutus et uolauit super tecta domus ibique diu mansit ouans et gaudens quasi pronunciaret tempus resurrectionis christi. Affirmat ergo edi[136]cio grecorum hunc eundem extitisse gallum qui eadem nocte cum cantando Petrum arguit negantem. super quem lacrimantem dominus continuo respexit. Hoc autem signo infelix Iudas territus abiit ad locum ubi passus est Christus: uidensque illum esse dampnatum proiecit in templo argenteos unde prius fuerunt abstracti fuerunt a Iudeis et abiens laqueo se suspendit. Sicut pater suus antequam ipsum procreauit diuinauit. Erat enim pater eius astrologus qui eadem nocte in qua genitus fuerat Iudas respexit planetas et uidit et ita intimaui uxori sue quod si quis eadem hora noctis generaret filium quod ille filius patrem proprium occideret et dominum suum detraheret et se ultimo laqueo suspenderet. Quod factum est sicut prophetauit. Nam statim pater predicti infelicis Iude accessit ad uxorem suam nec se potuit abstinere et filium iniquitatis procreauit. Qui patrem proprium submersit dominum suum fefellit laqueo se suspendit et sic patet eius origo et eius finis.

f. 179 b. A charm • iij • tymes sayde ouere a wounde.

Ibant tres boni fratres ad montem oliueti bonas herbas querentes omnia wlnera sanantes. obuiauerrunt domino Ihesu Christo: quo tenditis tres boni fratres: Domine ad montem oliueti bonas herbas querentes omnia uulnera sanantes Reuertimini tres boni fratres et accipietis olium oliue et lanam bidentis et ponetis super wlnera et coniuretis uulnera per quinque plagas domini noster Ihesu Christi et per mamillas que lactauerunt Christum quod non doleat neque ranclat nec fetescat plusquam fecerunt wlnera domini nostri J. C. quando suspensus erat in cruce sed sanetur a profundo sicut wlus quod longeus fecit in dextro latere Christi. In nomine etc. Amen.

Binding: of xviith or xviiith cent.

The hand is exceedingly fine and clear, and the ornamental work—not large in quantity—is excellent in quality.

The lost leaf, D 5, contained the end of 1 John, 2 John, and beginning of 3 John.

On f. ii 9b is this note:

M. d. y<sup>8</sup> afte y<sup>8</sup> deathe off Mrs Cottrell she beyinge y<sup>8</sup> owner yerroff hathe gyuen y<sup>8</sup> same to Edmund Gryndall fellow off pembroke hall in Cambrye. M.

A fine hand of cent. xvi, xvii has added:

Hic liber postmodum devenit in manus cuiusdam David moris alias Hanmer, in artibus magistri, dum in domo honoratissimi herois domini Gulielmi Cecilii filium eius natu maximum institueret: unde post multos exantlatos labores in ulteriorem Salopiensis agri partem secessit, et scholae Oswaldiensis moderato evasit, quam per 30 aut eo plus annos faeliciter rexit. Cuius filius unicus Johannes moris alias Hanmer, paternis virtutibus exornatus, huius quem tenes libri copiam mihi facere voluit: vt ex subsequentiis eius ad me literis colligere possis Dilectissimo suo Edvardo Hughes Cantabrigiae Collegii Ihesu socio Johannes Hanmerus Suenianus Salopiensis S. D.

The writer excuses himself for having left Hughes's letter so long unanswered, on the ground that for 12 years he had been studying Law, and had forgotten his Latin. He then makes the offer of this MS., which he had inherited from his father, once Hughes's tutor; the letter is dated E Tuguriolo nostro Sueniae iuxta Oswestriam Salopiae Calend. Februarii 1594.

Hughes continues:

Atqui ut hunc publici iuris facerem et huic sedi literariae dedicarem, quem mihi ad priuatum studiorum usum dedit Hanmerus meus, impulit imprimis pietas mea in hanc nutricem meam, cui me meaque omnia debere profiteor ingenue: necnon imperauit publicae utilitatis ratio, quae (me iudice) non vult ut tanti pretii gemma intra priuati cuiusquam demortui scrinia tineis corroderetur. Gratis ergo fruatur posteritas Iesuana hoc qualicumque munusculo, post tot annorum lustra Cantabrigiae quasi postliminio reuocato.

Cui ex animo dat consecratque Edwardus Hughes quondam huius Collegii Socius.

BOETHIUS.

Vellum, 7 × 5, ff. 354, 27 and 29 lines to the page. Cent. xiii, xv.

Binding: white skin over boards: has had two clasps. Given by Mr Man.

Collation: a<sup>s</sup> b<sup>s</sup> c<sup>10</sup> (wants 6) d<sup>13</sup> (wants 11) e<sup>13</sup> f<sup>s</sup> || g<sup>13</sup> (wants 11, 16 blank) || h<sup>13</sup> i<sup>10</sup> (wants 5, 10 blank) || k<sup>13</sup>-z<sup>13</sup> aa<sup>13</sup>-gg<sup>13</sup>.

Provenance: Durham: the name has been cut off, but the following inscription is left on the 4th fly-leaf at the beginning, in a hand resembling that of the Durham inscriptions in general:

- O. Quinque libri boecij de consolacione philosophie cum tabula.
- ii. Expositio super quinque libros predictos satis certe notabilis.

I do not find it in Catt. Vett.

Contents:

1. Boethius de consolacione philosophie, cent. xiii . . . . f. 1
With many marginal and interlinear glosses.
f. 27 is of xvth cent. inserted in the 3rd piece of Book v. (on f. 56 b the older hand leaves off and one of xvth cent. continues). The text ends on f. 66: ff. 66 b-70 b are blank.
2. Table to the above, of cent. xvi.
A good border of English work, gold, blue, green, pink, orange, on f. 71.
The table ends on 86 a: 86 b-90 b are blank.
3. Commentary (by Nicolas Trivet) on the De Consolacione . . . 91
Explanacionem librorum boecij de cons. phil. aggressurus.
Begins with an account of Boethius, drawn apparently from Freculphus.
There is a good border on f. 91 and a plainer one at the beginning of each book of the Commentary: these borders are of the same character as that on f. 71.
Diagrams occur occasionally in the Commentary.

SELECTA EX AUGUSTINO.

Vellum, 10½ × 7, ff. 147, 36 lines to a page. Cent. xii.

Collation: i<sup>s</sup>-xii<sup>s</sup> xiii<sup>4</sup> (wants 4, a blank leaf) a<sup>s</sup>-e<sup>s</sup> f<sup>10</sup> (wants 1: 10 is a blank leaf attached to the cover).

The binding is the original boards, covered with white vellum and formerly fastened by two straps and pins, of which the lower one remains. There is a chain-mark on the middle of the lower edge of the 1st cover. It is no. 3 in James's Ecloga Cantabrigiensis (1600), p. 137.

Provenance. On the inside of the first cover is a xvth cent. table of contents:

Contenta huius libri sunt hec :

1. Aurelius Augustinus doctor egregius super genesim ad literam in . 12 . libris.
2. Aug. de gratia noui testamenti.
3. Aug<sup>i</sup> prologus ex primo libro Retractationum.
4. Aug. de vtilitate credendi.
5. Aug. de laude karitatis.
6. Omnis diuina scriptura.

In another hand below :

Liber m. Johannis gunthorp' decani Wellensis emptus London xx decembris a<sup>o</sup> xpi 1484<sup>to</sup> pro quindecim solidis solutis.

The 2nd leaf begins linguarum diuersitas.

The binding and the handwriting of the table of contents, as well as the folio-numbering, recall very strongly the Bury MSS., but there is no press-mark. This may have been on one of two fly-leaves lost at the beginning.

There are traces of a title in Lombardic letters along the back : the handwriting of the table of contents is, I think, that of the Librarian of Bury in cent. xv<sup>1</sup>.

Contents :

1. Augustinus super Genesim ad literam libri xii . . . . f. 1a
In single lines, 40 to the page, in a fine hand. The quires are marked in Roman figures i-xii. It has suffered from damp in the middle; f. 99b is blank. An initial has been cut out of f. 1. The headings are in red and green capitals.
2. Augustinus de gratia noui testamenti . . . . 100
In double columns of 36 lines each: an initial on f. 100 has been cut out.
3. Prologus ex libro primo retractatus S. Augustini . . . 124 aa
4. Liber S. Augustini ad Honoratum de utilitate credendi . . 125 ba
5. Sermo S. Augustini de laude karitatis.
Divinarum scripturarum multiplicem . . . . 141 bb
6. A tract without title, in paler ink.
(O)mnis diuina scriptura circa triplicem intellectum . . . 143 aa Gregory is quoted. Ends imperfectly: Heliseus domini salus interpretatur.

ff. 146, 147 are in single columns, 32 lines to the page.

On the inside of the cover is an unfinished outline of a bearded man (Christ) xii-xiiith cent. and the price, written in xvth cent. precium xv s.

See the present writer's Essays On the Abbey of S. Edmund at Bury, pp. 3, 46.

50. Q. G. 2.

YSAIAS, TOBIT, RUTH, GLOSATI.

Vellum,  $9\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ , ff. 134, 15 lines of text on most pages. Cent. xii, xiii. Two volumes in one.

Binding: the original boards, covered with brown leather.

Collation: i<sup>a</sup>-xiii<sup>s</sup> xv<sup>4</sup> || a<sup>12</sup> b<sup>6</sup>: 134 leaves.

Contents:

Ysaias glosatus	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	f.	1
Tobit glosatus	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	117
Ruth glosatus	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	.	129b

The gloss on Tobit and Ruth is in a larger and coarser hand, not much later than that on Isaiah.

Provenance: Durham. There is a xvth cent. press-mark: € (in black letter) and an erased number on the cover: also a xvth century title 'ysaias glosatus et tobias glosatus': the € alone occurs on f. 1a. See Catt. Vett. 15, E. Ysaias et Thobias glo. ii fo., "wlnus et L." The volume was presented to the College by Mr Man, Fellow, Jan. 21, 1685.

Parts of two leaves from a large xiiith cent. Missal in double columns are attached to the covers: that at the end contains the Gospel of the Paralytic (Lc. v. 18), the collect Sacrificia domine tuis oblata conspectibus, the antiphon Spiritus ubi uult spirat alleluia, post-communion Sumpsimus domini sacri dona misterii humiliter deprecantes. Last line a rubric: Sabbato si ieiunium non fuerit. There is a good rough initial to the gloss on Isaiah, f. 1a.

Coarse vellum, somewhat soiled.

Collation: a<sup>10</sup>-d<sup>10</sup> e<sup>2</sup>: 42 leaves.

The book was printed by W. de Machlinia in 1484 (?). It contains a good deal of English. A version of the Ten Commandments was printed from this MS. by Wright and Halliwell in Reliquiae Antiquae. The author is said by Tanner to have been John Watton.

The MS. was presented to the College by Mr Man, Jan. (21) 1685. The binding is modern.

EXPOSITIO MISSAE, ETC.

Vellum, 7½ × 5½, ff. 71 (69 numbered), 30 lines to the page for the most part. Cent. xii, xiii.

Given by Mr Man.

Binding: a leaf of a folio Psalter in double columns, cent. xiii, the same book in which nos. 20 and 25 are bound. The fly-leaves are from the smaller Psalter, which has been used to bind Q. G. 4 and 5. At the beginning is the middle sheet of a quire containing parts of Pss. xli. (xlii.) Judica me—xliv. (xlv.) Deus auribus. At the end is a sheet containing parts of Pss. xxxiii. Exultate iusti, xxxvi. Noli emulari.

The provenance of this and the other books in which fragments of this Psalter recur is probably Durham.

This is probably the volume described on p. 25 of Catt. Vett. "D. Exp. missae cum sermonibus et quodam tract. de officiis ecclesiasticis ii. fo., ant' quasi."
